To the Member of
Divine Capital Markets, LLC

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Divine Capital Markets, LLC (the "Company" – a wholly owned subsidiary of Divine Holdings LLC) as of December 31, 2007, and the related statements of income, changes in member's equity, and cash flows for the year then ended that you are filing pursuant to rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Divine Capital Markets, LLC as of December 31, 2007, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained on page 8 is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects, in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

DECEMBER 31, 2007

1. ORGANIZATION AND SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

Divine Capital Markets, LLC (the "Company") is a limited liability company organized in New York State. The Company is registered as a broker-dealer in securities with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA). The Company's operations primarily consist of executing securities transactions on an agency basis, private wealth management, independent research and trading strategies and corporate finance and consulting services. The Company is a 100% wholly owned subsidiary of Divine Holdings LLC (the "Parent").

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires the use of estimates by management.

The Company maintains its cash in bank accounts which, at times, may exceed insured limits. The Company has not experienced any loss in these accounts and does not believe it is exposed to any significant credit risk on cash.

The Company uses the allowance method to account for uncollectible accounts receivable. Accounts receivable, which arise from institutional options execution, are presented net of an allowance for doubtful accounts of $12,600.

Securities not readily marketable include restricted stocks from private placement deals. They are stated at their estimated fair value, which are quoted market prices. The resulting unrealized gains and losses are reflected in revenue.

Furniture and equipment are being depreciated over their estimated useful lives (2 to 7 years) using the straight-line method.

Commissions and related clearing expenses are recorded on a trade-date basis as securities transactions occur.

Fee income is comprised of income earned from investment advisory services, private placements and research and is recognized when services are substantially completed.

Advertising and marketing costs are expensed as incurred. Advertising expense totaled $16,376.

No provision for federal income taxes has been made since, as a limited liability company, the Company is not subject to income taxes. The Company's income or loss is reportable by its Member on its tax returns. The Company is subject to local unincorporated business tax.

For purposes of the Statement of Cash Flows, the Company has defined cash equivalents as highly liquid investments, with original maturities of less than three months that are not held for sale in the ordinary course of business.

2. DUE FROM CLEARING BROKERS:

The majority of the clearing and depository operations for the Company's securities transactions are provided by one broker. At December 31, 2007, all of the securities owned and the amount due from the broker reflected in the statement of financial condition are positions with and amounts due from this broker. Subject to the clearing agreement between the Company and this clearing broker, the clearing broker has the right to sell or repledge this collateral.

DIVINE CAPITAL MARKETS, LLC

The Company has agreed to indemnify the clearing broker for losses that they may sustain from the customer accounts introduced by the Company.

3. CONCENTRATIONS OF CREDIT RISK:

The Company is engaged in various trading and brokerage activities in which counterparties primarily include broker-dealers, banks, and other financial institutions. In the event counterparties do not fulfill their obligations, the Company may be exposed to risk. The risk of default depends on the creditworthiness of the counterparty or issuer of the instrument. It is the Company's policy to review, as necessary, the credit standing of each counterparty.

4. COMMITMENTS:

The Company subleases its office space for a term commencing January 24, 2004 and expiring March 30, 2011. Lease expense totaled $88,841 during 2007.

The following is a schedule by year of future minimum rental payments required under the operating lease agreements:

Year Ending December 31	Amount
2008	$ 75,380
2009	77,264
2010	79,196
2011	20,294
	$ 252,134

5. NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS:

The Company is subjected to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (SEC Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1 (and the rule of the "applicable" exchange also provides that equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash dividends paid if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1). At December 31, 2007, the Company had net capital of $478,543, which was $449,603 in excess of its required net capital of $28,940. The Company's net capital ratio was .91 to 1.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S SUPPLEMENTARY REPORT
ON INTERNAL CONTROL

To the Member of
Divine Capital Markets, LLC

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements and supplemental schedule of Divine Capital Markets, LLC (the "Company" – a wholly owned subsidiary of Divine Holdings LLC) for the year ended December 31, 2007, in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, we considered the Company's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) as a basis for designing our audit procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.

Also, as required by rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company including consideration of control activities for safeguarding securities. This study included tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness (or aggregate debits) and net capital under rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of rule 15c3-3(e). Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

1. Making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, comparisons and recordation of differences required by rule 17a-13
2. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable, but not absolute, assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control or the practices and procedures referred to above, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

A control deficiency exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent or detect misstatements on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a control deficiency, or combination of control deficiencies, that adversely affects the entity's ability to initiate, authorize, record, process, or report financial data reliably in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles such that there is more than a remote likelihood that a misstatement of the entity's financial statements that is more than inconsequential will not be prevented or detected by the entity's internal control.

A material weakness is a significant deficiency, or combination of significant deficiencies, that results in more than a remote likelihood that a material misstatement of the financial statements will not be prevented or detected by the entity's internal control.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first and second paragraphs and would not necessarily identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses. We did not identify any deficiencies in internal control and control activities for safeguarding securities that we consider to be material weaknesses, as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2007 to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of management, the SEC, the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) and other regulatory agencies which rely on SEC rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
